

St. Petersburg College presents

St. Petersburg College

Impact of the Oil Crisis in the Gulf on Tampa Bay

July 14 • 6 to 8:30 p.m.

SPC-Seminole Campus Digitorium (UP 160)

9200 113th Street North, Seminole

Free and Open to the Public

Please register at www.floridacleanenergy.biz

First Panel 6 - 7 p.m.

Current Realities — The Oil Spill and Tampa Bay

Moderator, Dan Berard

- Tourism/Economic Impact

D.T. Minich - Visit St. Petersburg/Clearwater

Keith Overton - Hotel/Motel/Restaurant
Association

- Habitat

Laurie Macdonald - Florida Program Director,
Defenders of Wildlife

Second Panel 7 - 8 p.m.

Responses — How Tampa Bay Responds,
Now and Worst Case

Moderator, Susan Glickman

- What Would Bring It Here? The latest information on what geographic, atmospheric, and weather conditions would bring the spill into Tampa Bay

Dr. Robert Weisberg - College of Marine
Science, USF

- Infrastructure

David Sorrick - Progress Energy

Secretary George Sheldon - Chair of the Gulf Oil
Spill Claims group of the Governor's task force

Closing 8 - 8:30 p.m.

Questions and Discussion

Closing Comments/Senator Dennis Jones,
Representative Janet Long

To view the live stream of this event, please link to mms://media.spcollege.edu/oil-crisis. (The program will be recorded for later showing in SPC classes or other forums, including SPC-TV.) Digitorium participants will be able to fill in cards with questions. Those attending electronically will be able to email or text them live to the Digitorium.