

Volunteers invited: 2017

FREE Jay Watch training sessions!

Trainings include an overview of Florida Scrub-jay behavior and field practice with the Scrub-jay mapping and survey protocol. All trainings are held in the mornings.

- ⇒ Saturday, April 29— Duette Preserve, Manatee County
- ⇒ Saturday, May 6 — Allen David Broussard Catfish Creek State Park and FFA Leadership Training Center, Polk County
- ⇒ Saturday, May 13 — Lyonia Preserve, Volusia County

- ⇒ Saturday, May 13 — Cross Florida Greenway, Marion County
- ⇒ Saturday, May 20 — Jonathan Dickinson State Park, Martin County
- ⇒ Wed, May 24 — Hickey's Creek Mitigation Park and Caloosahatchee Regional Park, Lee County

- ⇒ Thursday, May 25 — Shamrock Park, Sarasota County
- ⇒ Saturday, June 3 — Royce Ranch/FWC, Highlands County
- ⇒ Saturday, June 10 — Savannas Preserve State Park, St. Lucie County

For more details or to register please contact: Jacqui Sulek jsulek@audubon.org.

Participants will learn :

- ◆ About Florida Scrub-jay cooperative breeding behavior
- ◆ Population trends and factors affecting population stability
- ◆ Standardized Jay Watch survey methods employed statewide June 15 —July 15