2019 AUDUBON ASSEMBLY RECAP
GAINSEVILLE, FLORIDA

Water and Land for Florida’s Future:
Science-based strategies for clean water and healthy watersheds

Keynote Speaker
Dr. Thomas Frazer
First Chief Science Officer for the State of Florida

Assembly guests enjoyed his talk during the Friday evening banquet on Florida’s natural resources and policy priorities for his tenure as the Chief Science Officer.

Field Trips
For the Birds...
Sweetwater Wetlands Park
Bolen Bluff Trail, Paynes Prairie
La Chua Trail

And More!
FPL Horizon Solar Energy Center
Guided Tour (click to read about it!)
Kayaking on the Silver River
Birds & Brews Meetup
Self-guided UFL Museum of Natural History and Butterfly Rainforest Tour

Learning Sessions
Treatment Wetlands:
Bird Habitat that Improves Water Quality

Trees, Cows, and Wetlands:
The Role of Agriculture in Florida’s Watersheds

Community Science Advocates:
EagleWatch, JayWatch, Coastal Bird Stewardship, and Effective Advocacy

For details on each panel, click here

Additional Sessions
2020 Action Agenda
Click here to read about priorities for the upcoming year

Plenary Session
Florida’s Water Resources
To read about the panel discussion, click here
(see page 4)

By the Numbers:
300+ Attendees
36 Chapters Represented
9 Awards Conveyed to Conservation Leaders
7+ Different field trips

Conservation Leadership Initiative
25 Students from 12 Colleges & Universities

Chapter Celebration
Best in Education
Marion Audubon
Tropical Audubon
Under 500 Members
Above 500 Members

Best in Conservation
St. Lucie Audubon
Manatee County Audubon
Under 500 Members
Above 500 Members

Most Outstanding
West Pasco Audubon
Apalachee Audubon
Under 500 Members
Above 500 Members

We are extremely grateful for our generous sponsors:
Wells Fargo, Darden Restaurants, Florida Power and Light, Duke Energy
Covanta, Publix, Visit Gainesville, Rayonier, Vulcan Materials
Holbrook Travel, Hastings Foundation, Guest Services, Beach Community Bank, Florida Polytechnic Institute

Infographic designed & created by AnnaFaith Jorgensen, of Audubon’s Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary