

Lake Nona and Audubon of Florida Present...

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11 FROM 10:00AM – 2:00PM

Audubon Center for Birds of Prey and Lake Nona are partnering to raise awareness and funds to benefit wildlife and habitat threatened by the BP Deepwater Horizon Gulf oil spill.

Stop by the Lake Nona Info Center and meet visiting Raptors, including an American Bald Eagle, from Audubon's Birds of Prey Center in Maitland.

The free event is for the entire family and will feature exhibits and activities demonstrating what Audubon is doing to help in this critical wildlife rescue effort. Attendees will also enjoy complimentary lemonade and cookies, and some great door prizes and giveaways. Donations will be accepted.

The Lake Nona Info Center is located at 9588 Narcoossee Road, Orlando 32827. Contact the Info Center with any questions at 407-888-6500 or info@lakenona.com.
